FRIDAY

Tip: 3 ways to never lose a measurement (tailors)

Image: 07-fri-tip-never-lose-a-measurement.png

ENGLISH

Save this before your next busy season. 📌

3 ways to never lose a client's measurement:

01 · Date every set. Bodies change. Write the date and the garment next to each set, so you always know which sizes are current.

02 · One place per client. Not one page per order, not a WhatsApp chat. Keep every set for a client together.

03 · Back up the paper the same day. Photograph each sheet before you close the shop. Or scan it into SeamFlow: it reads the numbers, and you check them before saving.

Which one do you already do? Tell us in the comments 🗣️

📅 Coming soon to Cameroon.

FRANÇAIS

Enregistrez ceci avant la prochaine grosse saison. 📌

3 façons de ne plus jamais perdre les mesures d'un client :

01 · Datez chaque série de mesures. Le corps change. Notez la date et le vêtement à côté de chaque série, pour savoir quelles mesures sont à jour.

02 · Un seul endroit par client. Pas une page par commande, pas une discussion WhatsApp. Gardez toutes les mesures d'un client ensemble.

03 · Sauvegardez le papier le jour même. Prenez chaque fiche en photo avant de fermer l'atelier. Ou scannez-la dans SeamFlow : l'appli lit les chiffres, et vous les vérifiez avant d'enregistrer.

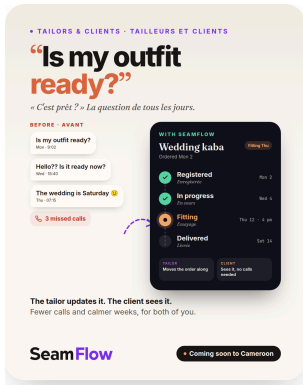

Laquelle faites-vous déjà ? Dites-le-nous en commentaire 🗣️

📅 Bientôt au Cameroun.

SATURDAY

"Is my outfit ready?" (both)

Image: 08-sat-is-my-outfit-ready.png

ENGLISH

"Is my outfit ready?" 📞📞📞

Clients: you've sent this message more than once.

Tailors: you've answered it more than once, usually with a needle in your hand.

With SeamFlow, the tailor moves the order along (registered → in progress → fitting → delivered) and the client sees exactly where it is. No chasing, no missed calls, no surprises on the big day.

The tailor updates it. The client sees it. Calmer weeks for both of you.

🧵 Coming soon to Cameroon. Tag your tailor, or tag a client who always asks 😊

FRANÇAIS

« C'est prêt ? » 📞📞📞

Clients : vous avez déjà envoyé ce message plus d'une fois.

Tailleurs : vous y avez déjà répondu plus d'une fois, souvent l'aiguille à la main.

Avec SeamFlow, le tailleur fait avancer la commande (enregistrée → en cours → essayage → livraison) et le client voit exactement où elle en est. Plus de relances, plus d'appels manqués, plus de surprises le jour J.

Le tailleur met à jour. Le client voit. Des semaines plus sereines pour tous les deux.

🧵 Bientôt au Cameroun. Identifiez votre tailleur, ou un client qui demande toujours 😊
